Tracy Ashworth to join ClearView Communities

ClearView Communities is proud to announce that well respected business development and marketing professional Tracy Ashworth will take on the role of National Director of Business Development and Outreach at ClearView Communities in Frederick, MD beginning 11/6/17. Tracy has been a successful, knowledgeable, and trusted resource for families and individuals seeking treatment for their loved ones for several years. She comes to ClearView Communities from Lifeskills South Florida, having transitioned to the behavioral health world from corporate marketing when she joined the business development team at Skyland Trail in 2012. Tracy believes in "...ClearView's person-centered, community integration model. I am looking forward to helping to spread this forward thinking model nationally. The timing is just right for CVC to expand its message nationally and I am excited to be a part of this journey." Tracy will be joining forces with ClearView's regional marketing coordinator Patty Lutton. "The new collaboration with the Mayo Clinic is exciting. I look forward to working with Eric and his team of caring and talented professionals."

ClearView Communities is a CARF accredited residential treatment program for adults with serious mental illness in Frederick, MD. Located 45 miles north of Washington, DC and 45 miles west of Baltimore, Frederick is a beautiful small town nestled in the valley just east of the Appalachian mountains.
